

14.02.2018

Dear all,

Tomorrow the official IMC18 will start, and to help you to communicate your event you are encouraged to use a press release.

////////// PRESS RELEASE //////////

To help you promoting your local Masterclass we have prepared a press release, available at: www.physicsmasterclasses.org/index.php?cat=local_organisation&page=organisation

If you plan to issue the press release, please edit the sections on local activities and add your contact details. Your local press office might help with this. If you receive any media response we would appreciate if you would forward it to us.

////////// DVD / iso image //////////

For those who run their event offline: As ATLAS and CMS measurements are stable the iso image can be accessed from the following link:

Kind regards,
Uta + Ken
