Dear all,

A little news for you...

////////// MASTERCLASSES IN THE FINAL LAPS //////////

CERN has had 36 masterclass video conferences in this season with 24 left to go; Fermilab has had 16 with 11 left to go and TRIUMF will have one more. We are past the halfway point in time and accomplishment. Keep up the great work!

////////// NEW TEST, NEW MASTERCLASS MEASUREMENT, NEW LOCATION //////////

Last week, the Belle II experiment tested out its new masterclass measurement with students in Padua, Prague, Strasbourg and Maribor. They connected for a videoconference with KEK in Japan, where Belle II is located. We look forward to a great new regular masterclass offering in the future. And congratulations to all involved!
