Dear all,

////////// DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME IN EUROPE //////////

Last weekend, Europe switched to daylight saving time! If your video conference is with CERN but you are outside the Central European time zone, please carefully calculate the correct timing for connecting to the video conference.

////////// OFF-SHELL //////////

The British Columbia masterclass video conferences for the ATLAS Z measurement is on April 13. Three institutes will connect to moderators at TRIUMF in Vancouver. The Spanish language masterclass video conferences, also for ATLAS Z path, will take place on May 3 and 17 and will connect with Fermilab. There may be a few spaces open; contact Ken and he will inquire for you.

Kind regards,

Uta + Ken
